Charles Edmund Tousley

Birth/Established: September 15, 1864 Death/Dissolved: June 13, 1924

Biography:

Charles Edmund Tousley was born in Brunswick and moved to the Village of Brooklyn Centre. In his early career he was the editor of the "Cuyahogan." He later became a draftsman for George J. Hardway. He and Hardway were the editors and publishers of the "American Builder," a Cleveland-based publication that chronicled building activity in the city. Early in his career as an architect, he designed several homes along Archwood and Denison Avenues in the Brooklyn Centre neighborhood. He later was the architect for several Cleveland Telephone Company buildings, apartment buildings, and terraces. From Brooklyn Centre he moved to the east side, where he lived on East 55th Street and East 61st Street, before moving to Elbur Avenue in Lakewood. He died of Bright's Disease on June 13, 1924, and is buried in Royalton Cemetery.
